

Senior Frontend Developer

At Finturi you'll join a highly-skilled international team developing the world's most innovative invoice finance platform using blockchain and artificial intelligence.

Meet the job:

As a front-end developer, you will be responsible for building products from scratch, building reusable components and front-end libraries for future use, producing well-documented, beautifully crafted and scalable solutions. As a senior member of the team, you will also mentor and manage junior members.

We love a clean, testable, and maintainable code as we are building a product that is continually evolving. You will be a part of a multidisciplinary team being end-to-end responsible for delivery, from concept to production-ready software.

We like to keep work interesting and we encourage our developers to develop their personal strengths. Whether it's deep-diving into technology, agile processes, or attending conferences, at Finturi we offer you the room to grow.

How about you?

- You have 6+ years' experience in Front-end development including experience with REACT
- You have a thorough understanding of React.js and its core principles
- You have experience with popular React.js workflows (such as Flux or Redux)
- You have experience in leading front-end from scratch and being able to lead a team of other front-end developers
- You have strong analytical skills with the ability to plan tasks and work independently to meet predefined project deadlines and drive tasks to completion
- You have excellent written and verbal communication skills in English
- You have a BS degree in Computer Science or related technical field or equivalent practical experience

If you understand blockchain, security concepts or have experience in the Fintech industry, it's a huge plus!
